

Planning for College:

What are you doing to get ready?

A special presentation hosted by the Mayor's Youth Leadership Council that will help you separate truth from fiction in the complicated process of choosing and applying to college.

Did you know?

- Nearly a third of eligible students miss out on an estimated $3 billion in education benefits, according to a recent government study.
- The annual family income of more than 47 percent of undergraduates is less than $40,000.
- College admissions officers are now looking at all of a prospective student's social media accounts.

Facts derived from USA TODAY "Higher Education Archives."

Our panel includes:

Mr. Bill Ayers

Financial Expert who will discuss scholarships and financial aid.

Mrs. Vivian Fiallo

College/Career Counselor for Hillsborough High School.

Mr. Brad Randel

Sr. Associate Director, International Admissions, University of Tampa.
