Puerto Ricans in Florida Scholarship Award Information

Puerto Ricans in Florida Cultural Organization, Inc., (PRIFL) is a cultural enterprise that celebrates the Hispanic heritage and cultural pride of its members by keeping traditions and values alive. It was founded in 1975 and today it is a solid, organized and smooth running not-for-profit corporation. Puerto Ricans are relocating to the Mainland and have brought to Florida their significant brain power and ever increasing economic clout. PRIFL seeks to promote the uniqueness of our culture by connecting the ideas and resources of this group to those of other Florida residents for the benefit of all. Our organization recognizes the value of a good education by providing scholarships Awards to Puerto Rican high school graduates in the State of Florida to assist them in pursuing further education and/or vocational and technical training.
